

Missionary Talk Slated

The Rev. and Mrs. F. O. Seaward, missionaries to Singapore, will show colored slides of life in that area at 7:30 Sunday at the Assembly of God Church, now meeting at the YMCA, 208 Washington Blvd. Mrs. Seaward is a native of China, while Rev. Seaward was born in San Pedro. They will return to Singapore this summer. Slides include shots of the Hindu fire-walking ceremony. The public is invited, according to the Rev. Gene May, pastor.

LUTHERAN CONFIRMATION CLASS . . . Fourteen young people were confirmed recently at the First Lutheran Church. Shown are (front) Rev. Paul Wenske, Judith Welter, Mary Fahlstad, Sonja Pesola, Rebecca Sletton, Rev.

Seaside E and R Church Dedication Set Sunday

Dedication ceremonies for the chapel unit of Seaside Community Evangelical and Reformed Church will be held Sunday at 2:30 p.m., the Rev. Richard A. Miller has announced.

The chapel is located on a two-acre tract at 230th and Ocean Ave., where a future church plant will be built, unit by unit. It was built almost entirely with volunteer labor from the local congregation and from the Morningside Community Church, of Inglewood.

At dedication ceremonies, Dr. J. W. Flucke, president of the California synod of the Evangelical and Reformed Church and pastor of the Morningside Church, will deliver the sermon. To Install Minister

He will be assisted by the Rev. Allen Kroehler, pastor of the City Terrace Community Church, soon to relocate in Whittier, in officially installing Rev. Miller as pastor of the local church. The congregation has been meeting in the home of Rev. Miller, at 5342 Sharynn Lane, while part of the church school has been meeting at the home of Mrs. Lois Martin, of 5307 Reese Rd.

SEASIDE COMMUNITY CHURCH CHAPEL . . . Dedication Set Sunday

In the chapel, a departmentalized church school is planned, with curriculum adapted to age levels of attendants. A Youth Fellowship, young adult, men's brotherhood, and other groups are planned.

The women have organized a Women's Guild. A choir and women's chorus have been organized, with Mrs. Thomas Traumer as director, and Mrs. William L. Parker as pianist. Officers of the church are William Bartholm, president; Mrs. Lois Martin, vice president; Paul Dehne, secretary; and J. C. Hansbrough, treasurer.

Sponsored by the Board of National Missions of the Evangelical and Reformed Church, the Seaside Church was allocated its location by the Southern California Council of Protestant Churches. An old denomination in the East, the E and R Church is relatively new to California.

CHRISTIAN CHURCH TO BREAK GROUND SUNDAY

The First Christian Church of Torrance, 2930 El Dorado Ave., will break ground for its new sanctuary at 10:30 a.m. on Sunday, April 17.

Walter Levy, chairman of the official board, will move the first shovel of earth to begin actual construction of the building. Assisting in the ceremony will be the Rev. Frank Purnell, director of the department of evangelism and church development for the Christian Churches of Southern California; the Rev. J. J. Walker, who served the church as an interim pastor for one year; Howard Foster, chairman of the building committee; and the Rev. H. Milton Sippel, minister of the church.

A special shovel will be used by Levy and two long streamers will be attached to it, held by all present, so symbolically everyone will share in the ceremony. Ceremonies will take place between the two worship services. Rev. Purnell will preach at both services, 9:30 and 10:50.

The new building, which will be joined to the present fellowship hall, will have an area of 5000 square feet with seating capacity for 400. It will contain a church office, minister's study, prayer room, baptismal dressing rooms, and choir room. The architects are Gamble Associates and Louis Culler will be superintendent of construction.

Baptists Set Anniversary Rites Sunday

The first anniversary of the occupation of the South Bay Baptist Church chapel unit will be celebrated Sunday, as the Rev. George Cain preaches on "Meeting the Unexpected Trials of Life."

The church will celebrate the anniversary and make plans for the construction of a new unit, which was recently approved. In the evening service at 7:30, Rev. Cain will talk on "Can Almighty God Be Limited?" Christian Endeavor groups meet at 6:30 p.m.

The combined circles of the Women's Missionary Fellowship will meet in the chapel on Tuesday evening at 7:30 for the election of officers for the coming year. All ladies are invited to the meeting, where names will be drawn and circles assigned.

Bible study and prayer meeting will be Wednesday evening at 7:30 p.m., with a continuing study of the furnishing of the Tabernacle.

The South Bay Baptist Church is affiliated with the Conservative Baptist Assn. of Southern California, the Conservative Baptist Foreign and Home Mission Societies.

John D. Pickett Will Deliver Talk Monday

"Christian Science: Certain and Complete Healing Available for All" will be the subject of a lecture to be radiocast over Station KFVB, Monday evening, at 8 from the First Church of Christ, Scientist, Santa Monica, Calif. The lecturer, John D. Pickett, C.S., of Chicago, is a member of The Christian Science Board of Lectureship.

Holy Name Society To Hold Card Party

A card party will be sponsored by the Holy Name Society of the St. Margaret Mary Church at 8 p.m., this evening. Refreshments and prizes will conclude the evening program.
